Becky's New Car

Auditions for Dirty Rotten Scoundrels

General Membership meeting, 8pm

All events held at the theatre unless otherwise noted

President's Message

Dear NFCT Friends,

Have you seen the renovation campaign thermometer on the front lawn lately? Just in case you haven't I will summarize... YOU DID IT! We asked you to help us make the most of the $300,000 matching funds drive and you did it. Thanks to you, every dollar of the promised pledge will be matched. I want to thank each and every one of you that helped us reach our goal, whether it was with a donation or your time and energy to spread the word about this wonderful opportunity provided by Michael and Emilie Corey.

Your donations will allow us to take a significant step forward on our renovations. We welcome your feedback and input as we starting the detailed planning of the first phase of the interior renovations. If you haven't had an opportunity to see the high level renovation plans located on display at the back of the theatre, be sure to check them out when you're attending the next show.

In the meantime, the show must go on. We just wrapped up Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? and I hope you didn't miss that fantastic piece of theatre. Next up will be Becky's New Car opening in March. Don't worry though - you don't have to wait until March to see all your theatre friends. We will be having an attic cleaning party on February 6th at 1:00 PM. Anyone who wants to help us clean and organize the props and costumes in the attic is welcome. If you're looking for something a little more exciting than a dusty attic, we will be ice skating at Mitchell Park in Greenport on February 7th.

Looking forward to seeing you soon!

Becky's New Car

By Steven Dietz

Have you ever been tempted to flee your own life? Becky Foster is caught in middle age, middle management, and in a middling marriage-with no prospects for change on the horizon. Then one night a socially inept and grief-stricken millionaire stumbles into the car dealership where Becky works. Becky is offered nothing short of a new life in this hilarious look at marriage, motherhood and the mundane matters of life. Performances are Friday through Sunday, Mar 4 -20. Opening reception will be held at 7 p.m. on March 4th. Wine tasting by Raphael's.

Auditions for Dirty Rotten Scoundrels

Auditions for Dirty Rotten Scoundrels will be held on Monday March 7th at 7PM and Tuesday March 8th at 9PM with callbacks on March 9th at 7PM. The musical farce – with a score by David Yazbeck – features two competing con men, a beautiful woman and the elite of the French Riviera. Based on the movie of the same name, the show was nominated for 11 Tony Awards in 2005. Performances are set for May 12-29. To audition bring 16 bars of sheet music to sing; an accompanist will be provided. For more information, contact the director Laura Pearsall bernie51girl@hotmail.com.

Props and Seamstress Needed

The production team is looking for NFCT members to search their attics for the following items needed for Becky's New Car! items required:

- Parson's chairs (1-2 armless with slipcovers, if available)
- Dust Buster (functional)
- Office phone
- Cell phones
- Outdoor wooden chairs (Adirondack, rocking: that can be painted)

The Production coordinator seeking seamstress:

- willing and able to sew several throw pillow cases with a covered zipper for upcoming productions using own machine.
