President's Message

Dear NFCT Friends,

Happy 2016! It has been a wonderful year at the NFCT. There were great shows to see and many ways to get involved with community events. My favorite was marching in Southold Town's 375th Anniversary Parade. Let me know your favorite by sending an email to president@nfct.com or feel free to suggest a community event for the upcoming year. In January we will go to see Shear Madness in NYC, and in February we will be ice skating.

On January 15th, Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? will open and you don't want to miss this one. The cast has been hard at work while the rest of us enjoyed the holidays to bring us an outstanding show. If you're not familiar with the show, please note that it contains adult content and language that may not be suitable for younger viewers.

I must admit that I'm just a bit sad to say goodbye to 2015. Not only did we have great shows and events, but I got to witness firsthand the support of an entire community. As part of the Renovation Campaign's Matching Donation Drive we held many small events to present the architectural plans to the community. We showed you our dreams and you met us with open hearts and open wallets. I don't have an exact total, but as of the time I am writing this I can tell you that we are very close to matching every pledged dollar of the $300,000 goal. Keep an eye out on the thermometer on the front lawn, and our Facebook page for updates. You have opened our eyes to the possibilities of what can be achieved when you have your community backing you! As for you, 2016... you have big shoes to fill.

Looking forward to seeing you soon!

NFCT's 12th Annual Variety Show: Jan. 1, 2 and 3

The 12th Annual Variety Show will be held Friday and Saturday, Jan. 1 and 2, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Jan. 3, at 2:30 p.m. There will be music and dancing galore!

Tickets are $10 at the door, with proceeds benefiting scholarships for local high school seniors. No reserved seating. Call 298-6382.

Who's Afraid Of Virginia Woolf? By Edward Albee

Late night drinks at George and Martha's after a faculty party turn into a harrowing evening for the unsuspecting guests, Nick and Honey. Edward Albee's stinging domestic drama depicts a toxic marriage laced with cruel games and black humor, and lays bare the dark underside of human relationships. This program

Long Wind Chimes and Additional Props Needed for Who's Afraid Of Virginia Woolf?

The production team is looking for NFCT members to search their attics for props needed for Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? The following items required:

- Long Wind Chimes of any kind
- Old school cut glass ash tray
- A gun that shoots a flag out of it

If you have an item that fits the bill, please call Michele Messinger 516.695.8186

NFCT trip to NYC's New World Stages

Join NFCT friends on a trip to NYC to see "Sheer Madness" on Thursday January 28th at 8PM. "Sheer Madness" is a "whodunit" where the audience helps solve the crime. It is the longest running play in the US, but just opened on November 11th in NYC at New World Stages after playing in Boston for decades. Tickets may sell out, so promptly contact Mary Kalich at 917-334-6639 or marymotto@yahoo.com if you are interested in attending.

NFCT Upcoming Community Event: Ice Skating in Greenport—Date to be announced!

Join your NFCT friends for ice skating at the outdoor rink at Mitchell Park in Greenport. Watch for the date at www.nfct.com. Bring yourself and/or the whole family. Even if you don't ice skate, come hang out and join everyone for hot cocoa by the rink and/or a casual lunch after skating

Give the Gift of Theatre: NFCT Gift Certificates

This Holiday season give the gift of live theatre! Tickets for all four of the upcoming shows in the NFCT 2015-2016 season is only $60 total. Exact show dates can be chosen now or closer to the performance. NFCT Gift Certificates in any denomination are also available. To purchase, go to Brown Paper Tickets or call 631-298-NFCT (6328). For more information, call the NFCT general information line at 631-298-4500.
