NFCT Gala – June 12

The 13th Annual NFCT Building on Tradition Gala will be held on June 12th. It will be a Concert by the Bay at Veteran's Park located on the corner of Peconic Bay Blvd and Bay Avenue in Mattituck. Patrons will choose to attend at either the 2PM or 6PM showing. You can reserve a table for groups of 4 or more people. The tables seat 6 to 8 people. Up-to-date CDC recommendations will be followed.

The band, Spicy Tuna will be playing along with members of the North Fork Community Theatre including the celebrated Youth on Stage program for ages 14-22.

Individually packaged gourmet sandwiches and sides will be provided to each attendee along with beer, wine, soda and water. Go to nfct.com to see the food choices and select a vegetarian option.

There will be raffle baskets, door prizes and a silent auction. Silent Auction items are on display at 245 Love Lane, Mattituck. Bids will be accepted online at nfct.com through Friday June 11th at 5PM, after which the final Silent Auction items bids will be accepted only at the June 12th Gala. There will be two live auction items at each of the Gala sessions: a Stand-Up Paddle Board, and a pair of Adirondack chairs painted by renowned local artists Alan Bull and Kara Hoblin.

Tickets are on sale now. Return your mailed invitation or buy online at nfct.com. For more information about the NFCT Gala, contact Mary Motto Kalich at 917-334-6639 or marymotto@yahoo.com.

Gala Preview Event – June 1st and 2nd

Join us for a preview of the food and music of the NFCT Gala. CJ's American Grill will donate $25 to the North Fork Community Theatre for every dine-in or take out ordered from the prix-fixe menu on Tuesday June 1st or Wednesday June 2nd. On Wednesday June 2nd at 6PM, there will be live music in the courtyard outside CJ's provided by NFCT performers Nancy DiGirolamo and Raven Janoski, accompanied by Matt Orr and Jay Janoski. The prix-fixe menu is $50 and will be offered from 4PM until close.

Diversity and Inclusion

The NFCT has always strived to make everyone feel welcome. A committee has been formed to examine ways to expand opportunities and is looking for your input. Let Chairperson Liz Liszanckie know at lisanckie@gmail.com if you have any suggestions. We hope for a brighter future for everyone at the NFCT.

Online Play Readings

There are two weeks left in our series of live streamed play readings for May: Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw on May 22nd and Lady Windermere's Fan by Oscar Wilde on May 29th.

The readings will be free to view through the NFCT website on the performance dates and afterwards on the NFCT YouTube page. For more information, to download the scripts to read along, and to watch the performances, visit nfct.com

Youth on Stage

This year's YOS program will be a series of showcases performed at several outdoor venues throughout the North Fork culminating in a final performance in August.

Check email and social media for details on times and locations.
